When's the "little Don & Terri's" going to be running around? I hope yaire working on it!? (sorry!) I really wish I could've been there for your big moment but I hope I was there in your thoughts. How was it? Thanks for the invitation, it was really nice. You know I don't even have your address! Thats why I haven't written at all. So write to me & give me your address. I heard you were working as a secretary. I'd like a job like that. Well, Ive taken up enough room. Remember all those great T-Shirt parties & all those great times in Palmisano's. Boy have you missed an exciting class. She gives me lectures on the guy I'm going out with because he's 30. She's really strange. Well, keep in touch, please. And I wish you all the luck in the world for your Don.

Luv ya,

THE TIMES IN OUR LIVES

Time - the moments, the days, the years.

A yearbook records the happenings and events of the academic year.

A yearbook records the moods and feelings of a school.

A yearbook serves to unite the student body and provides a treasury of moments for the senior class.

For our students, faculty, and administrators the 1981 Spokesman presents a view of the past and the present so that in the future we may cherish our memories for as long as time itself.

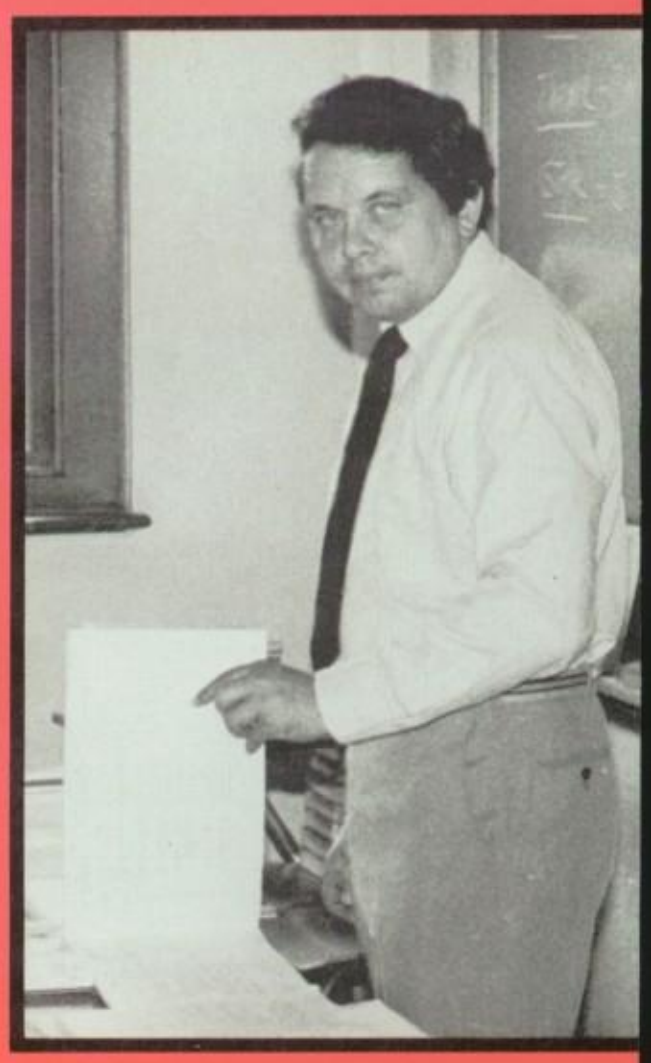
A Tribute

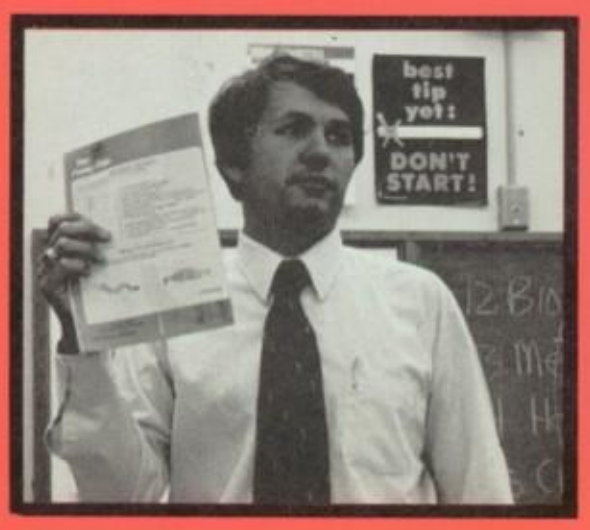
Over a quarter-century ago Joseph S. Gervase entered S.V. for the first time. Many are the students that can recall his lively tutelage as teacher, club advisor, coach or as a molder of Vincent students when he served as principal of Memorial and Gridley Jr. High Schools and finally as our principal in 1975. His personal example, encouragement, and never give up attitude is an embodiment of that "uniqueness" that is the Strong Vincent Spirit. He makes certain, daily, that the school flag waves proudly in front of our building for everyone to see. Strong Vincent is a tradition perpetuated by a great line of principals. As a tribute to his outstanding leadership we pay special tribute to Mr. Joseph Gervase.

1980-81 Spokesman Dedication

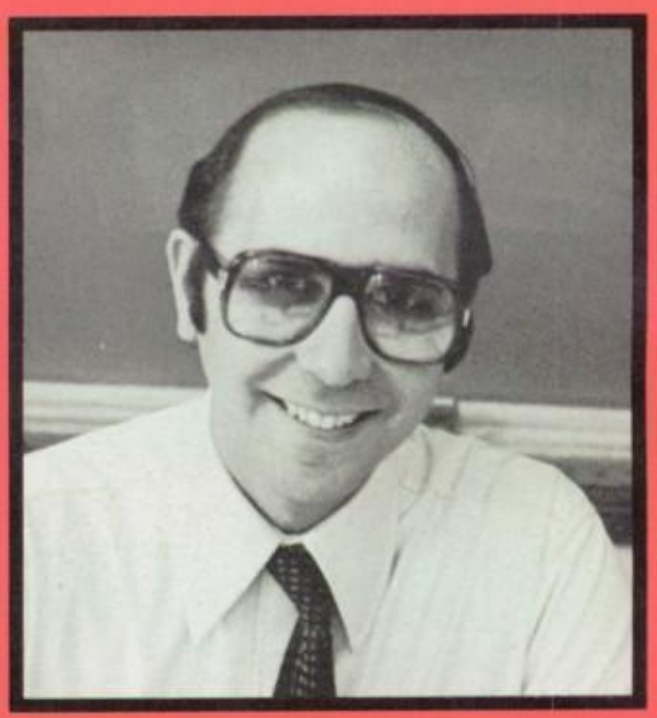
The 1981 Spokesman is dedicated to Mr. Vincent DeLuca. Mr. DeLuca has been a teacher in the Erie School District for eighteen years. As a math teacher at Strong Vincent, he has taught general math, trig/solid geometry and geometry. He has also served as advisor to the boys' and girls' intramural bowling teams. Under Mr. DeLuca's direction the 1980 Strong Vincent Metro Bowling Team placed first in competition. Mr. DeLuca, a devoted teacher, is always available to assist or counsel his students.

ADMINISTRATION-FACULTY . . .





THE ACADEMIC TIMES



Principal

Mr. Joseph Gervase has served as head administrator at Strong Vincent for the past six years. Each year he has shown his true loyalty to the student body and faculty. Although his job is very time consuming, he is always willing to provide direction and assistance.

THE JOLLY, SILLY, FUNNY TIMES

Junior Class of '82

This year's junior class has proven themselves to be promising as the leaders of the 1981-82 senior class. They have put forth their outstanding qualities and leadership in Student Council and other such organizations throughout the year. The enthusiasm and spirit for sports and school activities, reflected in the junior class, is a great asset to the school. The Junior's talent and involvement in athletics have shown the potential that will lead Strong Vincent to a very successful year. We hope they will show their many attributes in the coming year, as they will be the Seniors, the leaders of S.V.

Sophomores

Class of '83

The sophomore class of 1980-81 has proven to be a very spirited group. They showed their enthusiasm at the rallies and bon-fires, and they could always be found cheering for the Colonels. As a group the sophomores have also contributed to the many organizations and clubs. May their final two years be as successful as their first two.

Mary tries to smile her way through geometry.

Freshmen

Class of '84

The freshmen class of 1980-81 participated in many school activities. They contributed to the athletic teams, the organizations and provided enthusiastic school spirit. We hope they keep up the good work, and achieve the goals they have set.

SV's offense . . . Down & Ready!!

Strong Vincents' 1980 Varsity began the season in red hot fashion by defeating its first three opponents. This was the first time since the 1950's that a Vincent team had started out so strongly. Then, despite playing a very good game, the team was defeated by Academy in a game that could have gone either way until the final seconds. Psychologically, this hurt the Colonels who played poorly on defense against East and lost. In the Tech game, neither the offense nor the defense played well and Vincent was shut out in its Homecoming Game. Against Prep, once again the Colonels played poorly and lost. In the final game of the season against McDowell, Vincent redeemed itself and saved a 50/50 season from being a losing season by defeating arch-rival McDowell. Coach Costello and his staff feel that this season had both bright spots and dismal ones. Good luck to the graduating seniors, and best of luck to the returning players for a successful season in 1981.

Seeing plenty of action underneath the hoop were the trio of rugged rebounders Bill Ball, Sophomore Willie Hollis, and Mike Deutsch. Running the offense were smoothies Doug Niemic and sophomore Brian Horn. Getting plenty of action on the wing were the quick threesome of Randy Billups, Greg McCullum, and Charles Hollis who led the team in scoring. Aiding them were Kevin Tome and the inspirational leader Bobby Moss. They made an outstanding appearance the second half of the year winning all five games. At the season's end, they tied for second place in the Metro League with a 6-4 record. They finished the season with an overall record of 8-6. The 80-81 team looks promising with returning two year All City player Bob Moss. Other returning players are Scott Campbell, Vinnie Juliano, Tony Bambauer, Andy Space, Gary Steudler, John Argerus, and Brian Horn. Good Luck to Coach Brabender and the S.V. Colonel Baseball Team.

The 1979-1980 Girls' Softball team had a fair season this year placing 4th. The main reason for their decline in standings was the loss of many valuable players. The two returning seniors, Lynn Gieger at third and Michelle Penpek at catcher, were key play makers during the season. Other standouts were Juniors, Sherry Putnam and Laura Heubel who showed their talent and versatility by playing various positions. Sophomore Cynt Crockett made a good showing with her outstanding hitting ability. Coaches for the team were Head Coach Ron Niebauer and Assistant Coach Crystal Reagle. The girls won a berth in the playoffs but were defeated by McDowell putting an end to a very long season.

Smilin' Vinnie.

The 1980-81 Spokesman Staff under the supervision of Ms. K. DeSante has again proven its ability by producing an outstanding yearbook. The Spokesman of 1979-80 received a second place award from the Pennsylvania School Press Association. We believe that with the quality of this book and the dedication of the entire staff we can again place in the competition. The staff this year is composed of a group of multitalented people with much experience. The three editors Colleen Gardner, Kelly Marsden and Michele Rundquist all have three years experience. The Spokesman Staff has tried many different innovative ideas this year to make your memories of Strong Vincent as special as your years here.

Terri,

So a very dear friend of mine. You're a very special person Terri. Everybody knows that, that's why you're missed by so many people, so much!! We wish you could be here at that special time when we all graduate together! But I'm sure you'll be in our thoughts. I'm glad to see that you're very happy in your new life with Don. I hope you two will always + forever stay happy!!

Terri, don't forget all the good times we had while you were here! And of course all the good times at our hangout - The Calabrese Club. Maybe (if) you come back to visit (you better) we'll all go out dancing again. I can remember when Joe + I were going together + you were always dating, + now look you're married! I thought I was going to be the one to tie the "big knot" first. I know you're happy + you're lucky to have someone as good as Don is. I wish Joe + I were getting married — but that won't be for another 3 to 4 years. (We're trying to save up some money) But I'm patiently waiting; I know exactly how you felt with Don cause Joe means more to me than anything else in this world!!!! (By the way, thanks for your wedding invitation - they were beautiful! I only wish I could have been there to see you. Did you know that you were married on my birthday?) take care of yourself Terri (AND OF COURSE DON TOO) + please keep in touch! Class of "81"

Terri,

Where do I begin? You already know how much I miss you and how much all your other friends do too. This senior year was good, but it just wasn't quite complete without you. Well at least the first few months at the beginning of the year were shared with you. I still have our combination lock (14-16-30). I'll always keep it for remembrance of you, although I'll still remember you even if I ever did misplace it. It's really amazing that we finally graduated. I still can't get over how fast our high school years went. Don't you agree? I wish you could of attended our graduation, it was rather scary - at least I was. I was so happy after it was finished. It sorta was sad though because I'm gonna miss Jenny and them.

I tried my best in getting all your close friends to sign your yearbook, but you are liked by so many I couldn't get them all. There's one though that I'm really sorry I forgot to have sign your yearbook and that's Paul B. I didn't realize it until it was too late. There's probably many more who I've forgotten, but at least I didn't forget the book. I'm sure you'll enjoy this years yearbook. I wish you could sign my yearbook but I'm afraid that's just impossible. Terri, never forget all the fun times we shared together, and never lose hope that there won't be more, because I'm sure there will be many more to come. Take care of yourself and I wish you and Don much happiness in your future together.

Your Best Friend Always
